BAND HOUSE

Dedication

We pause near the end of our high school days--And clasp the treasured hand which has guided us thus far--We lift our hearts and voices in a song of praise-----To honor you, our parents, for love, for faith, for principles--Imbued in us from birth, for all that builds us----gifts from you-----.

Oh! That we prove our worth!

Carnival Program

Activities

Typical

Why does that bell ring three minutes early every morning?

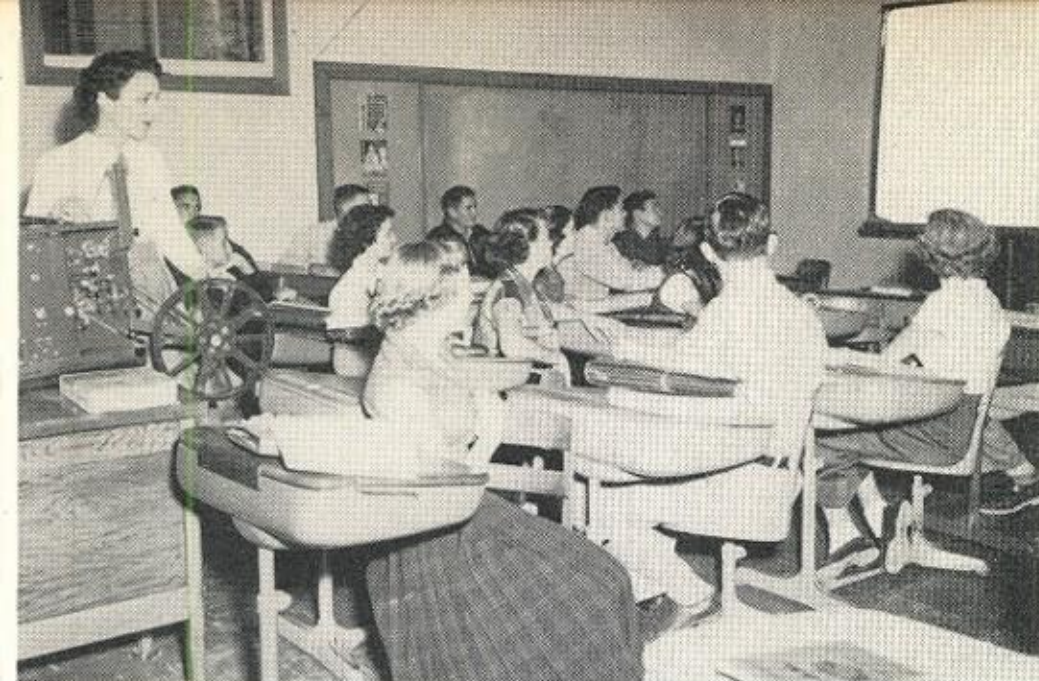

Oh No! My keys are locked in my locker.

Plane geometry has everyone going in circles.

Now don't get sick, it's just a man's brain.

Concentration--on civics? boys? clothes? sports? dates? girls?

Day

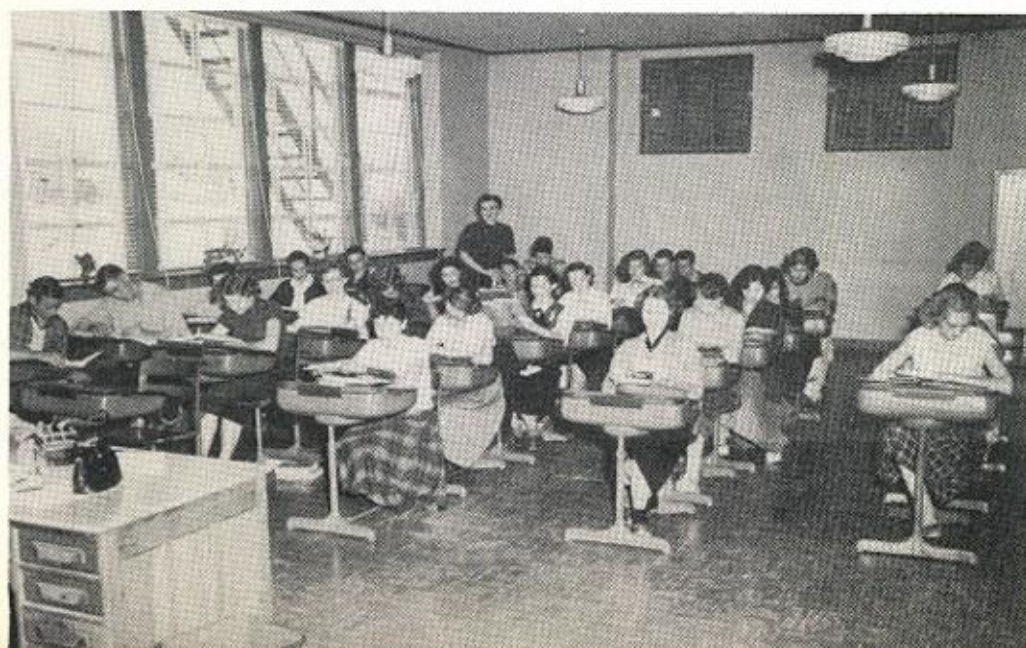

Recitation will now begin. Who made history last night?

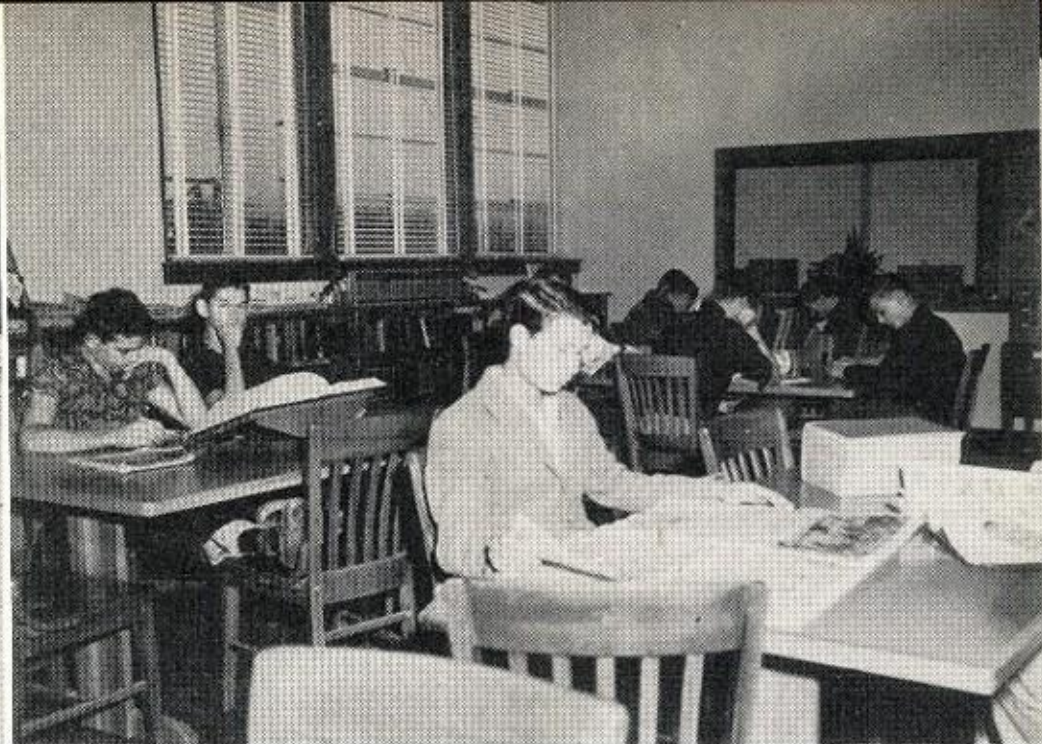

Creeps! I can't read a thing I have written.

All together now--page 222. Let's live it up with great exuberance.

Old poets never die, they're put in English books.

Help! I've sewed it to my best skirt.

Typical

Who's that doing that humming?

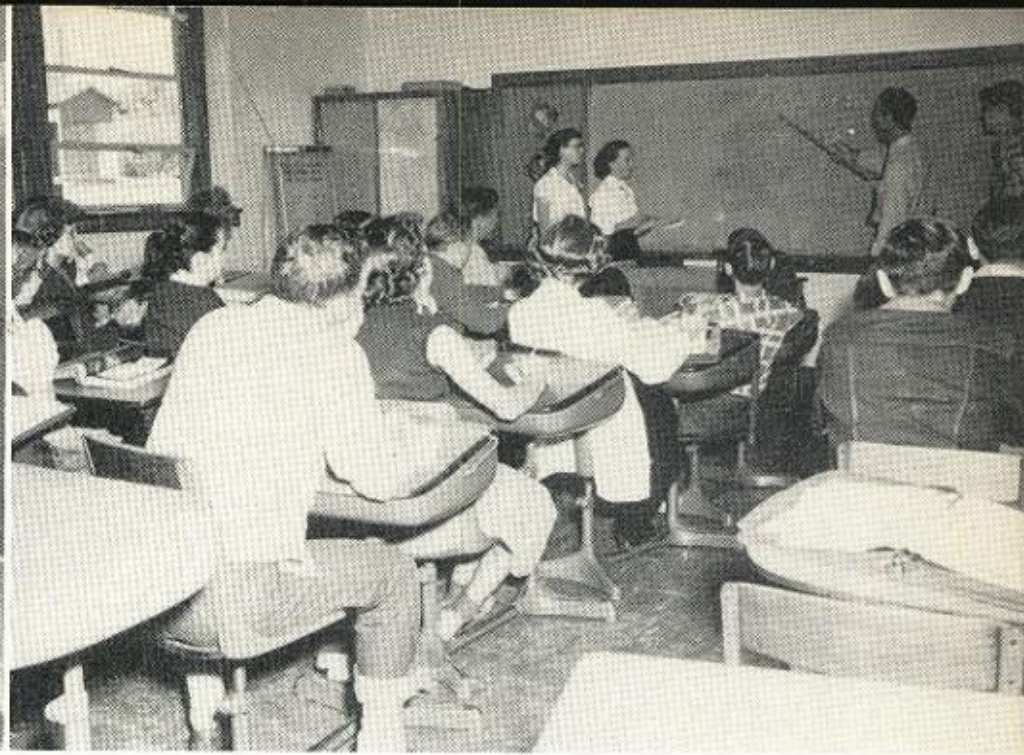

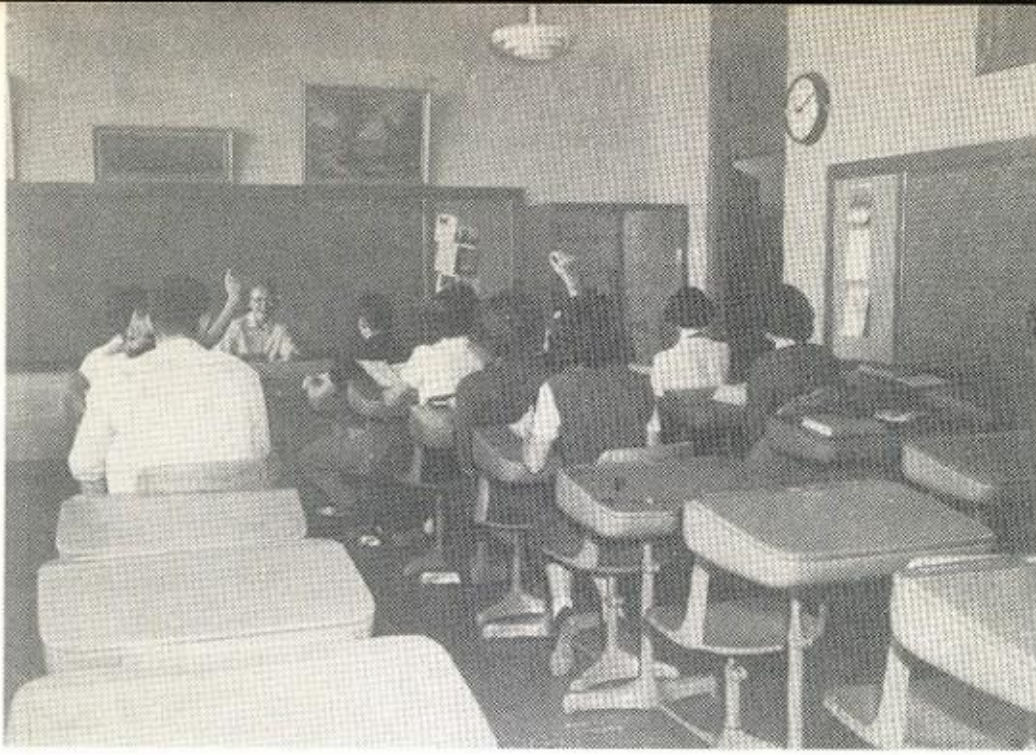

Comfortable, Sidney?

Who has been swiping cookies out of my jar again?

Up to the lips,
Over the gums,
Look out stomach!
Here it comes.

Has anybody heard any new jokes?

Day

Miss Howard, you always pick on me!

All right, Students, I'll explain it again.

The alarm just didn't go off, etc.

Everybody try to look interested and let some of your brain cells work.

Peck-Peck-Peck--Get-that-hump-out-of-your-back!

Day's End

Now boys, this chicken had a worm in it.

That blank expression on your face does not reveal a thing!

Round out your consonants and sound out you vowels--oh, heck-- Sound out your consonants and round out your vowels!

Smack it, Birdie!

Somebody must have let the gate open!
